Prayer Letter – July 2019

Dear Praying Friends,

The great preacher, Johnathon Edwards, said that ... “Prayer is the means by which God’s will is fulfilled on earth.” If God’s will is done on the mission field it will be because somebody prayed. God’s will is being done because of your prayers. Thank you for all that you do for the Lord’s glory.

PRAY FOR THE WORK IN PILOTO, AMAZONAS, BRAZIL

The construction project in the jungle village of Piloto has been impeded for the last few weeks because the rain. In spite of the difficulties much progress has been made on the building. Please join us in praying for the following things: 1). Safety for the workers as they transport cement and bricks to the worksite using a small bass boat. 2). The salvation of the Bricklayer ... His nickname is Pará. 3). The salvation of the folks that Missionary Jones is ministering to every week.

PRAY FOR THE WORK IN BUCARAMANGA, COLOMBIA

Next Thursday I will be traveling to Bucaramanga, Colombia to visit with Aaron and Aubrie Vance. On Saturday, the Lord willing, I will be speaking to his seminary students and a group of others who he is discipling. Please join me in praying that the Lord will enable me to communicate effectively and share some information that could be helpful. Also I will be preaching their homecoming service on Sunday and again I covet your prayers. Please pray that the Lord would use me to be an encouragement to Aaron, Aubrie and their girls.

In Christ,
