

December 2018-January 2019

Dear Faithful Pastors and Churches,

Looking Back: It has been our privilege to influence others toward Christ, can you say the same? Have we challenged hearts? In 2018 we preached for around 20 churches assisting pastors and presenting the need for planting new churches or rescuing those who are struggling. We celebrated 32 years with Macedonia World Baptist Missions and reached our 39th year of preaching the Gospel. When approaching our senior years each of us should look back in reflection; look inward with inspection; and look forward with anticipation of what God can accomplish as we continue to serve.

Thank you for all the Christmas cards, gifts and special offerings given to us during Christmas. We tried to send each of you a personal written note, but in case we missed someone please know that we appreciate each expression of love toward us as your missionary.

Looking Within: All of us should be a witness in our neighborhood, our place of work or school. We should be serious about God's plan to see lost souls come to His Saving Grace. Reflecting on one's life in the ministry is a sobering experience and it is our desire to continue steadfast in preaching the Gospel.

Looking Ahead: In this year of 2019, we anticipate helping missionaries in Georgia, Tennessee, North Carolina, Florida, Mississippi, New York and Canada. Our desire is to see men and women with a burden for the Eastern United States to join our team. Our goals have not changed in planting churches, and assisting those that may be struggling. Please pray for our pastors who are discouraged in the battle, that they will have a renewed desire to reach those in their community.

Looking Up: In life and ministry we have learned many valuable lessons about working together with fellowhelpers. Therefore, we want to encourage each of you to have a heart cry of passion for our Lord, a time of prayer in your quiet place, and wisdom to understand that your labor is not in vain in the Lord. (I Corinthians 15:58)

Looking Unto Jesus,
