

THE LOWE FAMILY

YOUR MISSIONARIES SERVING IN THE BAHAMAS

January & February 2019

Aiden to piano lessons when she was slammed into by another car. The car ran into the passenger side door of our car where Aiden was sitting. The other car was destroyed from the impact; but thankfully, our 20-year old Nissan Pathfinder is as solid as a tank. No one was seriously injured, and we thank the Lord for His protection. Our car has a bent shock and other damages, so please help us pray that we can get it back on the road quickly. The parts will have to be shipped in, and it is very hard to find an honest mechanic. One mechanic already tried to quote me $6,000 to fix it. I told him that the car wasn't even worth that much money.

While cleaning the other day, I came across one of our old prayer cards. Heather and I reminisced about bringing our young family to the mission field. Now our "young" children are almost all teenagers. We are so thankful that God would allow us to labour here for Him these past 10 years. We are also thankful for your prayers and financial sacrifice that have enabled us to be here. This year my burden for our church plant is that our people would allow their beliefs about God and His Word to radically change their behavior. We started the month of January off with a week-long conference. Evangelist Tom Sooter and his lovely wife came down and were a tremendous blessing to our church. They were also a huge blessing to our family, and we enjoyed the fellowship. In February, we had our annual "I Love Jesus" Sunday where I take the time to teach on financial stewardship. A lot of our people come from a "prosperity gospel" background, and they have great confusion in this area. The very next Sunday we had a "Baptism Sunday". There were seven adults and teenagers that followed the Lord in Believer's Baptism. After the morning service, we all drove down to the beach where I conduct the baptisms. God gave us a perfect day. The water was calm as glass, and the sun was shining bright. We also had 3 families make the decision to officially join the church during that morning service. Later that week, Heather and two of the kids were involved in a traffic accident. Heather was coming back from taking Audrey and
