October 2019

I wanted to begin by saying "thank-you" to all of those who were faithfully praying for me as I ran Little Fish Ministries during the Bergey's absence. We praise the Lord that the Bergey family made it safely back to South Africa! Lyssie seems to be recovering well from her brain surgery, but I would ask that you continue to pray for her as her brain still needs much healing.

During the last week of August, I made my flight back to the States. I took a couple weeks to readjust to the time zone and enjoy my family, before driving down south to begin deputation. Over this past month, I have traveled to multiple churches throughout Virginia, as I seek to raise support for my ministry in South Africa. I am so thankful for the sweet people I have met along my journey who have reached out to me, prayed for me, offered up rooms, fed me meals, gifted shoes/toys for my future home, and have made me feel so welcomed and loved. I truly believe that I have gained new family into my life as I meet other brothers and sisters in Christ!

I currently have 13% of my support needed and would appreciate the prayers as I continue my travels throughout Georgia, Tennessee, and the Carolinas!

I remember those few days before I left to begin my drive down South... the devil seemed to be throwing every curveball to discourage me. I wrecked the side mirror off my car, my Grampy was placed in hospice, and all the last-minute details weren't falling into place like I had hoped... But then, God reminded me of this precious verse found in Isaiah 43:1-2 - "But now thus saith the Lord that created thee, O Jacob, and he that formed thee, O Israel, Fear not: for I have redeemed thee, I have called thee by thy name; thou art Mine. When thou passest through the water, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: when thou walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee."

"Thou art Mine."

There is such peace in knowing that the God who made all things and is above all things is the same God who is watching over me and WITH me each step of the way! I can always find strength and comfort knowing that I am a child of God. He will keep me sheltered through the storms of life. What a loving God we serve!

In Christ's love,

Lorna

Matthew 25:40 "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."
