Reviving Baptist Churches
(A CHURCH RESCUE MINISTRY)

Jan., Feb., Mar. 2019

Dear Praying Friends,

First of all let me thank all of you that sent Christmas and special offerings to us this past Christmas season. We were able to be home and spend this special time with most of our family.

What a blessing it was and we don't get to do that very often. You realize how time is flying when you see the grandkids growing and turning into young adults. Where did 2018 go?

We have worked with a local church that was recommended to me that was about a thirty minute drive from our house. I got tracts printed through Macedonia's print shop which the church hadn't had in years. I went door to door in that neighborhood and got to lead a seventeen year old young man to the Lord the second week out. Pray for Jay. The following week I met with the Pastor and the Deacon after a Sunday night service. I brought up two issues that I didn't think were right that was going on in the church. The Deacon agreed with me completely. I was not going to leave and stop helping them over these issues, but it was not my place to correct them. The next week the pastor told me that I would not be preaching there any more. I was set back and a little shocked to be honest. I have never been asked to leave a church and in so many words that's what happened. I left quietly and said that I would be praying for them, which I have. The ministry is full of surprises, some good and some not so good. The devil's tactics have not changed- he attacks from within and without. Paul faced attacks from all sides and said—Php 4:11 Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content. I am not discouraged, depressed or stressed. I saw a bumper sticker that read -“ Too blessed to be stressed.” that's certainly true. Let Satan take his best shot and I will keep going, keep preaching, and keep looking up.

We took another trip up to the far north to Canada. We were able to help our son in law, Gordon Horton, who is also a missionary with Macedonia. I got to teach and preach at Community Baptist Church more than once. The people there are special friends along with Gordon, Lori and three precious granddaughters who are all very special to us. What a wonderful time we had with the rest of our family that we didn't get to spend Christmas with. Those girls are growing into beautiful young ladies and very talented. They all play musical instruments and we all sang together in one of the services. I am not like my wife who loves the snow, but I can tolerate it to spend time with them. We have been to Canada in the winter and summer, and believe me summer is better.

We are currently praying for the next church to help in our church rescue ministry. If you know of a struggling church looking for a pastor please contact me.(cell-678-332-4693)

Thank you for your prayers and support. We couldn't help these churches that can't afford to pay a salary without your help. Keep looking up- He is coming soon.

In His Service,

Bro. Nye
