MISSIONARIES TO WALES

Dear Friends,

We cannot believe it's already 2019. Last year seems like a blur. So much took place, and our lives took on a new direction, yet it still doesn't seem possible that the year is over. I guess the old saying is true--"Time flies when you're having fun!"

We spent the month of January in various churches across North Carolina and South Carolina. God blessed in many ways, including sweet fellowship with His people, generous love offerings, and some decisions to take us on for monthly support. Dana also had the opportunity to speak at a ladies' meeting this month, which is something she truly enjoys doing. All in all, it was a productive month.

Jason has dropped to a part-time workload at his job, which is good in that it allows him more time to book meetings and bad in that it decreases his weekly pay. This is where faith and fear collide, but God has been faithful, and we have no need to doubt Him now.

We are still at 8% of our needed support though we are hopeful God will soon bring an increase to that number. It's all in His time, and we are trying to wait on Him and follow His leading.

Thank you for your prayers on our behalf. They are greatly appreciated!

In Christ's Hand,
Jason and Dana
