Dear Pastors and Praying Friends:

Last year was full of blessings and excitement. Several were saved and the Church made some progress spiritually and in numbers.

We are looking for the Lord to do great things this year. We are talking about having another youth camp but we are just in the praying stage right now. We need a lot of help to do this so we will see what happens as the Lord directs us. We have an active youth department now due to the youth camp we had in July. They are singing in the choir some and are getting faithful to Church. We lost several who came to the camp, but we expected we would, but praise the Lord some stuck with it. We are going to have a Vacation Bible School this year. One of our family's 9 year old girl protested last year when we had the camp and not VBS. She made protest signs that said; "No youth camp. We want VBS". She brought the signs to Church. She is the daughter of one of our faithful members and did it as a joke but we will have VBS this year. We haven't made much progress on the handicapped bathroom due to all the sickness that was continually going around. We hope to get started on that soon. Our Thanksgiving service and meal went well. Several visitors came and one man was saved. He is the husband of a family that has been coming to Church for some time now. Brother iSam Owens, a Missionary to the Sioux Indians in South Dakota, preached that Sunday. We had a teachers meeting at Church and started planning some things for this year. One of the things mentioned was some of the ladies wanted to have a ladies retreat. We hope to have that this year as well.

Our visit to Georgia went very well. We got to spend time with our Grandboys and enjoyed it tremendously. We only stayed a week. A blizzard hit North Dakota on our way back and we were stranded at several airports and got back home a day late. But we made it back. My daughter and her husband got back even later than we did.

Even though the devil fought us every step we made last year I can gladly report that the Lord came through the year victorious and brought us with Him. 1 John 4:4 Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world. It is wonderful to serve a wonderful God. We thank you all who gave and prayed for us in 2019. All that was accomplished we give honor and glory to our Lord but we couldn't have been a part of it if it wasn't for all of you. The Lord bless you all and keep praying for us as we begin a new year. Keep looking up. This may be the year he takes us all home.
