MISSIONARIES TO WALES

April 2020

Dear Pastors, Churches, and Friends,

First off, we want to thank you for the many prayers, cards, and phone calls we've received. What a blessing to have so many checking in on us to see how we're doing and asking if there is anything they can do to help. We are doing well, and the Lord is using this time in our lives to help us rest and prepare for the remainder of our deputation journey. We've been staying busy doing odd jobs here and there and taking care of other ministry needs. Our financial support hasn't faltered, and we want you to know how much we appreciate your love and faithfulness.

This month, we were able to minister online in a few different ways. First off, I was privileged to preach the Wednesday night church service for our church via Facebook Live. It was my first time preaching to a camera, which is A LOT different than preaching to a congregation. But, it was a blessing to be able to minister in such a way.

Dana was able to participate in the UK ladies' group meeting through Facebook. They enjoyed three days of fellowship, some singing, games, and messages from God's Word. They also held an online Hymn Sing, in which Dana had a part.

Hebrews 6:19 tells us, Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, and which entereth into that within the veil;

Our hope in God is the very thing that will keep us from being swayed by the shifting winds of this world. It will enable us to stand strong no matter the storm we're facing. It will keep us stable and secure.

Over the past several weeks, we've seen our world turned upside down. People around the world are sick and dying. The healthy have been quarantined to reduce the likelihood of catching this dreaded disease. People are scared to the point they are hoarding food (and strangely enough, toilet paper). Many have lost their jobs or are temporarily on leave. Money is tight. The future is uncertain. These are scary times and violent storms indeed. But despite all this, we can stand firm in God's unchanging nature and unfailing power. He is still in control.

Hopefully, we'll be able to get back on the road soon and continue raising our support to get to Wales, but in the meantime, we'll continue to try to reach souls within our area of influence. God has a work for us to do, and by His grace, we'll do it every day, whether it be from home or abroad. The work must go on, for the hour of Christ's return is growing nearer.

In Christ's Hand,
Jason and Dana Rongione
