Field Director For Africa
Missionaries in Burkina Faso

Dear Pastor and praying friends,

July - August 2020

The month of August was an extremely busy month. We had two camps, and they were a great success. Through the years we have had several pastor's camps. We were blessed to be able to have another one the first week of August. It is a time where the pastors, their wives, and their children can have a time of fellowship, a time of relaxation, and a time to be challenged. We taught on the theme out of Nehemiah 2, "Let us rise up and build."

We decided that this year we would have an afternoon carnival so that the pastors' children could experience some new and fun activities. We had many different games where they could earn tickets. Then they came and traded for some gifts and candy. My wife made shaved ice. We were able to locate an inflatable slide. I don't think any of the children or even the adults have done something like this. What a joy to watch these precious kids sliding down each time with a huge smile on their face. Many of these families have faced some trying times in the last few months so it was a blessing to see them having fun together. We all enjoyed discussing the ministry together.

We had our youth camp at the end of August. This is our 13th year doing youth camp here in Burkina Faso. Every year we have a little bigger crowd. This year there was over 160 youth. The theme this year was, "Why is the harvest great but the labourers are few?"

The greatest thing about camp is that you take people out of their normal routine, giving God a great open door to work in their hearts. Many different preachers preached. You could sense God working, but there weren't a ton of decisions made until the last night. I felt led of the Lord to challenge them to get out of the boat. That is exactly what Peter did, and he walked on the water. I told them God has touched their hearts, but if you stay in the boat nothing will change. By God's grace there were around 15 gloriously saved that night. There was also 5 called to preach. Others made decisions to be pure and others made decisions to get rid of some things in their lives that weren't pleasing to God.

Thanks so much for all you do for us and
Burkina Faso,

Keith, Rebecca, Emily, Meredith, Isaac
and Caleb Shumaker
