Psalms 95:2

“Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving, and make a joyful noise unto him with psalms.”

Dear Friends,

As we approach Thanksgiving week, our hearts are overwhelmed with gratefulness for all the Lord has done for us. Although this year has been quite different from what many of us planned for and expected, there is still so much to be thankful for!

Firstly, we are thankful for each of you, who have faithfully prayed and supported us throughout this year. We have lacked nothing. Thank you for praying, giving, and sacrificing so we can continue here.

Secondly, we are thankful to see God’s work progressing. It has not been as fast as we wanted, but it has been truly a blessing to see the ones who have stayed faithful growing and making Godly choices. There is nothing better than seeing God changing lives! We are so thankful for this privilege!

Lastly, we are thankful that God has given most of our family good health during this year. The kids have all been healthy, God gave Jessica and Lily good health and a smooth delivery. We are so grateful! We had asked prayer for my health a while back. I have been dealing with a hernia and in pain for most of the year. Due to COVID restrictions, we had not been able to get the surgery done. God has opened the doors, and my surgery is scheduled for Friday the 27th at 7am. Please pray that the surgery will be smooth, pray for my wife as she will have to take care of the kids by herself. Also pray for a smooth recovery. We are thankful for my father in law stepping in to take care of our services for the first week or two, depending on how I am feeling.

We pray you enjoy a blessed Thanksgiving. We love you and are grateful for you,

In Christ,

Alex, Jessica, Joshua,

Caleb, Josiah & Lily Lima
