Matthew 1:21 – And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins.

I pray that everyone had a wonderful Thanksgiving holiday. I am always so grateful for this time of year; however, this year, especially, we had much for which to be thankful. We miss our family, but we could not be more thankful for all the Lord has done this year. He has brought us safely to Spain, kept us healthy during the pandemic, helped us greatly with our Spanish, and has done many mighty works in our church here.

In the recent months, we have had many visitors and returning visitors. Because of the pandemic, we have had visitors from other churches in town that are still closed. I am so grateful that we have been able to continue having in person services. There are definitely some restrictions with which we are having to deal with, but we have been able to meet every week, praise the Lord!

I am so grateful that I have had the opportunity to preach a couple of times recently, and Jessica has had more kids in Sunday School. We had one of the visitors tell our pastor that her son said he was excited to come to our church because he loved our Sunday School. She has done such a great job.

I am looking forward to the Christmas holiday this year. I have enjoyed watching Colton be so excited about it. He, of course, thinks that every morning is supposed to be Christmas since our house is decorated. I am thankful to be able to teach him the true meaning of Christmas. I am in awe to think of our Saviour and the way that He came to earth. He is our King. He is our Saviour, and there was only a simple welcome for Him. He deserved so much more, and He deserves much more than the amount of love we show for Him now. I look forward to the day that we are able to worship Him in person.

Please be in prayer for our paperwork. We are currently in the process of getting our first 2-year extension. We are being helped by a lawyer in hopes that it will help everything go through more smoothly, especially with the inability to get an appointment ourselves because of COVID. Our current residency expires on January 15, so please pray that we will have our extension by then.

Thank you so much for your faithfulness to us and more importantly to the Lord! We appreciate it more than we will ever be able to express. We are looking forward to our first Christmas in Spain, and we pray that you have a wonderful Christmas as well. We are looking forward to what God will do in the coming year.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

In His Service,

Jason, Jessica, Colton, Megan & Madison
