Greetings in the Name of our Lord Jesus,

I pray that 2021 is one of your best years ever. One thing for certain, we're closer to our Lord Jesus coming for us. We are blessed to know Him and be called His own!

We are now having church services as we did before the mandates, except for temperature checks, disinfecting hands and still wearing the mask. Actually, with the people we work among, it is a good thing. We work among folks that sorta get a little lax on keeping their personal hygiene at a 100%.

We're experiencing another situation that could affect us long term. Cartel members are buying orange groves around us and turning them into fortresses. In fact, we have some cartel family members that come to our services occasionally. Pray for their salvation.

Simon (Tim's oldest son) was involved in an accident, his car totaled but he was not injured, he was not at fault, neither was he hurt. Other person suffered head injury (12yr old boy driving four-wheeler at high speed). Simon taken to jail. Had to get lawyer to get him out of jail. All is well once again, thank the Lord.

Barb has her microwave and we now have AC thanks be to God and His people! AC feels so good! Still trying to revive our '88 Ford diesel truck. I'll get it done. Lord willing.

I ask prayer for our oldest son (Tony), He's in need of a better wheelchair and a better bed. Both are worn out. His life is confined to one or the other. Medicare not wanting to help him.

Thank you so much for your faithful prayer and financial support!
