MISSIONARIES TO WALES

Dear Pastors, Churches, and Friends,

October 2021

Fall—the season of change. The leaves are changing into vibrant hues. The weather is cooling. We're seeing the shift from summer activities to harvest festivals and even Christmas festivities. And as we witness these changes, we are aware of the upcoming changes in our own lives. A new country. A new home. A new language (sort of). While we are excited and eagerly anticipating our move to Wales, we are also preparing ourselves for the realization of beginning a new life in a new place. In that, one of the most comforting promises we cling to is the fact that God never changes. Though everything around us may be different, new, and even foreign, God is always the same. As He has led us to this point, so will He continue to guide us in our new ministry in Wales. We can trust in His faithfulness today because He was faithful yesterday.

October has been another busy month for us. We've been in North Carolina, Virginia, Maryland, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, and Ohio. We've had the privilege of being in several missions conferences in addition to many one-day meetings. A couple of churches have taken us on for support, while several others indicated they would likely do so soon, which would bring us very close to 100%.

During all the traveling, the transmission in our motorhome died, and it is currently in a shop in Maryland being repaired. The blessing is that we were only a couple of hours away from Dana's aunt and uncle in Delaware. Not only were they kind enough to allow us to stay with them a couple of days while we made arrangements for our motorhome repairs, but they also loaned us their motorhome to use while ours was in the shop. So, after taking an afternoon to grab stuff from our RV and move it into theirs, we resumed our schedule, not missing a single meeting. Is that God or what?

We were also able to purchase our plane tickets this month. It's official—we're scheduled to leave for Wales on January 18th. The Lord blessed us with some reasonable flight prices and arrangements, so we're very thankful for this provision. We've been in the process of getting our sponsorship papers in order so we can then work on our visas, but honestly, it's been challenging to find the time to get these things done between all the meetings and traveling. We would appreciate it if you would help us pray for the strength, stamina, and time to get everything done decently and in order and not to stress out about the many last-minute details.

As always, we thank you for your love, prayers, and faithful support. You have been a blessing to us in so many ways!

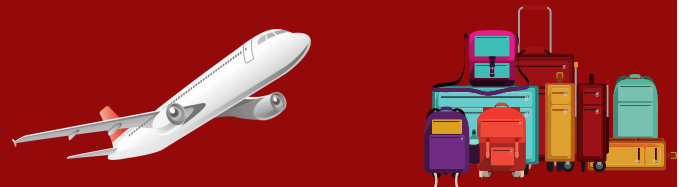

In Christ's Hand,
Jason and Dana Rongione
