YOUNG HO LEE FAMILY PRAYER LETTER

DECEMBER 2021

We wish you a merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!!!

In the midst of the coronavirus pandemic, the Lord is still carrying out His own plan in order to spread the Gospel of Christ around the world. One of our church members has to be quarantined for 14 days. He is released now but has to live under some of the covid restrictions. Remember him in your prayers. Pastor Brandon had his daughter Loren's violin recital at our church. It was a real blessing and a real challenge to our hearts. Our hearts were stirred up for the Lord's own glory!

Continue praying for Pearl's father-in-law. He had a prostate cancer with so much pain. He is unsaved and lost without Jesus. He would appreciate your prayer. Bro Yoon is our associate Pastor; and he preaches at second service every Sunday, and I preach at the main service every Sunday morning. We need spiritual power when we preach the Word of God. Satan tries to hinder God's messages and afflict with physical pains when I stand behind the pulpit. Thanks for your prayers for our requests.

We have the multitudes of foreign workers here in this land. Cathy, my wife, has wonderful opportunity to reach out to them with the Gospel. Most of them were from Africa; they are on work visa. Most of them are Muslim, and we don't have to go to Africa to reach out to them. Thank God they came to us. What a blessing too!

We are grateful for your prayers and support for the work of missions.
