Quarterly Newsletter

February 2022

Greetings to you from the Home Office of Macedonia World Baptist Missions. It is remarkable to think that we have already entered into the second month of a brand new year. So much around us keeps changing. However, we know that the Great Commission has never changed. We are convinced that God is still calling men and women to serve Him by carrying the good news of the Gospel around the world. More than ever before, the need is great because the time is so late. This is why we labour at the Home Office: to assist the missionaries of Macedonia World Baptist Missions who have accepted God's calling upon their lives to be messengers of the Gospel.

The work of the Home Office seems to kick up a step in January, as January of each year means tax time. Our office staff works diligently to keep detailed and accurate records all year long. These records are of great importance in January when we are responsible for sending out the detailed giving reports and support records. The missionaries also rely on these records for their own tax purposes. It takes many hours to prepare these statements, and our office staff does this in addition to their regular work load. It is quite a task, but it is part of what we do to assist the local church and missionary. Most churches do not have the staff necessary to perform these tasks. We are honored to be able to come along side the church and serve the missionary.

As we have previously mentioned, the need for labourers is still as great as ever. We pray on a regular basis that God would send more labourers into His fields. This year, we are earnestly praying for more labourers. Will you join with us in praying that God would call men and women to go into all the world? When is the last time you prayed and asked God if He would send you into all the world? Is God calling you to reach some part of the world with the Gospel? If so, we would be honored to help you get to the place of God's calling.

As we pray for labourers, we realize the need to reach the next generation and try to encourage them to give their lives to Christ in world evangelism. We will once again have the privilege of hosting the Georgia Youth Fellowship this year. The GYF will meet in our Heritage Training Center on Saturday, April 23. We are trusting the Lord to work in the hearts of the young people that will gather on this day.

This year is shaping up to be a busy year. In addition to hosting the GYF, we will also host our Second Annual Reach the World Youth Conference on Saturday, June 18. We rejoice in how the Lord moved last year in this conference, and we are seeking Him to once again work in the lives of the young people gathered here. Will you help us pray? Will you mark this day on your calendar? Registration will open soon. Registration is limited, so we encourage you to plan now to attend.

The week after the youth conference, we will begin our annual Orientation, June 20-23. We host Orientation for our missionary families every other year. Much work goes into this week of training and fellowship, but it is worth it. We want our missionaries to be ready to not only arrive on the field but thrive on the field. We look forward to a great week together.

In closing, let us once again say thank you for your part in reaching the world with the Gospel. Your support of the Home Office means more to us than you could possibly know. We depend upon your prayers and support to do what we can to assist the missionaries of Macedonia World Baptist Missions as they reach the world with the Gospel of Jesus Christ. These are busy days, but we believe that the time to serve and labour for the Lord is quickly drawing nigh. Anything we plan to accomplish for Christ must be done now. As Dr. Thurman Wade used to say, "The King's business requires haste!"
