

THE LOWE FAMILY

YOUR MISSIONARIES SERVING IN THE BAHAMAS

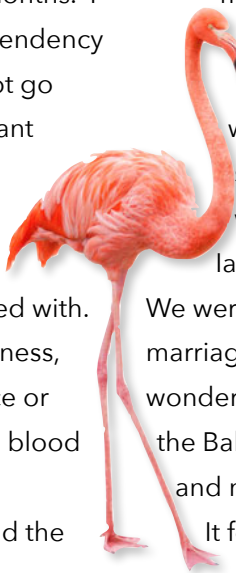

JANUARY - MARCH 2022

step out into a greater role of responsibility with us not being there. God has been so good to us. Thank you for your prayers, especially during this time. I am feeling some better, but still a long ways from being 100%. The doctor thinks that either time will help, or that I may never fully recover. Currently my main symptoms are shortness of breath, severe fatigue, and inflammation (especially in my head and sinus area). Please pray with us. We believe that God has a purpose and a plan in all of this. We are seeking His wisdom and will as we continue to serve Him in the Bahamas. We consider it an honor to be apart of your missions family.

“In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you.” 1 Thessalonians 5:18 has been constantly on my heart and mind these past couple months. I think all of us have that initial tendency to question when things do not go according to our plan. We want answers as to why things have entered into our life and, if we are not careful, that is what we allow ourselves to be consumed with. It is easy to just focus on the illness, the doctors appointments once or twice a week, the lab tests, the blood work, the CT scans, the pile of prescriptions, the infusions, and the added financial burden. But, there is always something that we can be thankful for. God provided us with several blessings during the last three months. We were able to spend some time with our family, we were able to be encouraged weekly by one of our supporting churches, and we were able to see Audrey and Ian during their college breaks. We were even able to serve/attend in a marriage retreat. We received wonderful reports from the church in the Bahamas with souls being saved and new visitors almost every week. It forced many of our people to

PRAYER REQUESTS:

- Pray for Jason's health needs.
- Pray that the church will be able to fully resume all services and ministries.
- Pray for wisdom as we minister in 2022 with still many unknowns.
- Pray for Audrey and Ian as they are in college.
- Pray for our continued protection.
