

THE LOWE FAMILY

YOUR MISSIONARIES SERVING IN THE BAHAMAS

APRIL -MAY 2022

blessing not just to me, but also to the church family. He has filled the pulpit in my absence and even performed the baby dedication that was scheduled for the morning's service when I was rushed to the ER. He had never held a baby dedication before. I left behind my notes, and I heard he did a wonderful job. I believe that he is who the Lord would have us to turn the church over to as a national pastor. We both have been praying together asking the Lord for His wisdom and direction. He has a desire to pastor, but is a little hesitant and not sure if he is ready. Please help us pray that God will continue to direct, and that He gets all of the glory.

I am writing this letter as I recover from my second surgery in as many weeks. At the end of May, I collapsed right before church on Sunday morning and had to be rushed to the Emergency Room. The CT Scan revealed two large kidney stones that had become impacted. I was not going to be able to pass them without intervention. The first surgery was to place a stent from my kidney to my bladder. This would allow my kidney to drain and avoid potential kidney damage. The second surgery was performed a week later. Its goal was to remove the two stones by the use of a laser. Praise the Lord that it was successful. I am still extremely weak and sore from such an invasive procedure. I am supposed to go next week to have the stent removed. I had always heard how painful kidney stones were. Now I too can testify as to the amount of pain they can cause. It also served as a reminder that even when we can't do His work, God is still working. In my absence these couple of weeks, the church here has continued to move forward for the Lord. The young man that filled in as the interim pastor when we went for my medical furlough has continued to be a

PRAYER REQUESTS:

- Pray for Jason's health needs.
- Pray that the church will be able to fully resume all ministries.
- Pray for wisdom as we minister in 2022 with still many unknowns.
- Pray that God will provide the finances to pay off the additional medical bills
- Pray for our continued protection.
