Greetings from the MGPI Print Shop,

Praise the Lord for His timing, and most of all, that He enables us to all work together in His great vineyard.

First of all, I mentioned timing because this last large load of tracts took longer to get to the destination than any we have shipped so far. Thank you for giving and thank you for praying! The one million, three hundred thousand tracts are finally in Honduras and in the missionaries hands. I will share a picture of them stacked neatly and awaiting to be shared with others.

Having said that, please continue to pray. I said the tracts had reached their destination, but in reality, that won't be until they are in the hands and hearts of lost souls that will read them. The next steps will be the missionaries, Leroy Rolston and Gene Trask, will be sharing them with other missionaries and pastors there in Honduras. Many national people, who have been saved because they heard the Word of God and accepted Christ, will put those tracts directly into the hands of precious souls there in Honduras. What a joy to have a part! What a joy that together we can all be used by the Lord to "go ye into all the world!"

The tracts are now in Honduras!

Let me mention another prayer request. You know that it seems like everything is going up in price. Well, that includes the paper, ink, and other materials we buy to print tracts. The electric bills and every other thing we do seems to cost more and more. By God's grace, we haven't gone up on our tracts yet. As you know, we don't sell them; we ask churches to give a donation to cover the cost, and if possible, a little more. We don't want to go up on the price, but pray we will have wisdom to know how best to share the costs of this great ministry. Those of you that give monthly and give special offerings are the main reason we haven't had to go up yet. As we watch the prices seem to climb daily, we are glad the Lord provides to print and share His precious Word with others.

We are praying for you and the work there where the Lord has you. May God richly bless His churches, His children, and His Word.

Praise our good Lord for all His blessings!!
