There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. Romans 8:1

October 20, 2022

Dear Pastor and Supporters,

I have been reminded of Romans 8:28 after a few hospital-stays in the past few months. We all go through difficulties from which we benefit by God's word clarifying some things and encouraging us. Joseph knew well that his brothers meant him evil, God meant it all for good (Gen. 50:20). God not only means it for good, but God Himself is always good. I thank the scores of people who prayed. God heard our prayers.

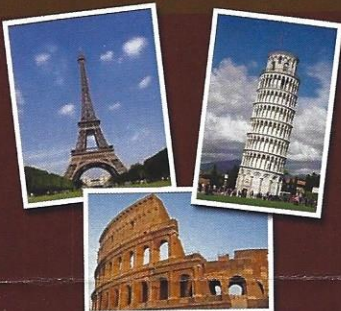

We should be back on the road in the next couple of weeks. There is so much to be done in reaching the lost souls of this country and the world. I have been able to accomplish much during this time, working in my office with mission projects and also helping a small church college reorganize their efforts to train men and women for the ministry.

Fifteen thousand (15,000) Kenyan high schoolers have received a copy of the booklet I wrote this past year. They say they have never had anything like this to give to students who were seeking to understand salvation or those who have recently been saved. Now they have something to lead them along the path of discipleship as God works with them. As of today, they are requesting another 10,000 booklets.

Thank you for all you have done to enable us to continue on the mission God has called us to do. He is faithful and you have been faithful as well. God bless you and thank you once again.

Yours in Christ,

Roger and Diane Baker
