Greetings in the Name of our Lord Jesus,

I pray all is well but I'm aware that sickness and accidents will befall many of us due to our fallen state that Adam passed on to us but we are to pray one for the other. I thank the Lord for the years He has given us to serve Him. Do remember us when y'all pray because God does answer prayer.

Pray for Vicky, a faithful woman in church. She lost her father and hopefully there will be a great reunion in heaven. Paco (Vicky's dad) did not come to church faithfully but was receptive to the gospel and he acknowledged that he understood the plan of salvation but never said that he accepted Jesus as Savior. After saying that, I could only say that he understood the the plan of salvation presented to him. Hopefully there will be a reunion in heaven with Vicky and Paco..

On the road again! Parts came in and the number one mechanic (I be da guy) got them installed. I sure hope he did the job right and everything will hold together another 40 yrs. The mechanic wanted a raise and I said (to myself) you'll get one at the rapture of the church and what a day that will be when our Jesus we shall see! Hallelujah!

Drug cartels are fighting among themselves for control of each others territory and that results in many deaths. Getting too close to home again! We covet your prayers in theses pearliest times. We depend on God's people for their faithful financial support and also for their faithful prayer support for the Gospel to be preached in power and also for our protection.

Shortly, Christmas will be here again and if the Lord touches your heart to help make Christmas a blessing for the people we work among, it would be very much appreciated. As y'all well know, our folks just do not have the monies to buy much. Just the necessities of life are a struggle to obtain. Last year y'all provided things that they can only dream about. Again, if the Lord nudges your heart to help our people, it would be very much appreciated. Some things that would be a tremendous blessing to our folks: shampoo, bar soap, deodorant, bath & hand towels, wash clothes, toothpaste, tooth brushes, perfume, shaving cream & aftershave lotion, mittens (male and female), gifts for children (boys and girls), LED light bulbs, very high premium: toilet tissue and wipes and of course chocolates. Chocolates are special because that's something they just cannot afford. Also think outside of the box and ask the Lord what you would like to receive if you were to change places with out folks here. The Lord nudged the heart of Pat Place in WV. She has already sent several things for our folks already. If you do send anything, I suggest that you order and have it sent to the state side address where we receive our mail and it's held till we can go out to get it and bring into MX.

We got Simon & family moved in. Not close to being complete but he's in. Not all that was needed came in but I thank those that helped financially. It is very much appreciated!

Our oldest son, Tony, still struggling to keep his only foot and leg. We appreciate and thank you for your prayer for him.
