Greetings in the wonderful name of our sweet Saviour, Jesus Christ. I pray you are well and living daily in the joy of knowing Jesus Christ through the precious Holy Spirit and in the light of His Word. Anita and I are so thankful for your continued prayers and financial support. This year marks our 35th year in full time missions, and many of you have supported our family the entire time. You will never know how God has used your faithfulness to not only encourage our hearts but to supply the means to carry out the ministry He has given us.

This year started off with some heartbreaking news as our daughter and her husband lost a baby girl at 29 weeks 5 days. Evelyn Louise Bentley was born sleeping in the arms of Jesus on the fifth of January. Evelyn means "wished for child" because they wanted her so badly, and Louise means "renowned warrior" because she fought so much harder than anyone believed she could, but it was not meant to be. Please continue to pray for Jasen and Melissa Bentley as they must push on raising the three children amid dealing with the grief of this loss. While they are devastated, heartbroken, and lost in grief, they are clinging to their faith in God's promises and His goodness. Anita and I appreciate your prayers for this sweet, godly family.

February came roaring in with Anita being diagnosed with pneumonia. Even now, she is beginning to show signs of coming out of the worst of it. Please keep praying for Anita that she will regain her health and strength.

February 15th is International Angelman Day. It is a day to help raise awareness of this rare neuro genetic disorder. Our granddaughter, Amelia Bentley, who is almost two years old has Angelman Syndrome. For more information about this please visit <https://www.angelman.org/>.

David and McKenzie Ballinger, missionary church planters on the islands of St. Vincent and The Grenadines, are home on furlough and are scheduling meetings both to update their supporting churches and to raise some much-needed support. I can assure you this family loves God and are faithful missionaries your church can support without reservation. You may reach David Ballinger to schedule a meeting at 704-418-6622 or by email at davidballinger@mwbm.org. The Ballinger family will be a blessing and encouragement to your church family.

In His Service,

David & Anita Fenley

Galatians 2:20

I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work.
