First and foremost, we apologize for the delay in getting this prayer letter out. We had hoped to have good news to share concerning our sponsorship issue, but as of now, we are still waiting for notification regarding the status of our application. Additionally, we have not received our letter from the immigration office yet. We appreciate your patience as we navigate this process, and we remain hopeful that, in due time, the Lord will provide the approval we're praying for.

While we continue to wait on the Lord's timing and direction, we have found ways to remain engaged and faithful in our ministry:

Special Harvest Services:

In the past couple of months, we have had the privilege of attending several special harvest services. These gatherings have been moments of spiritual rejuvenation, and we have been blessed to share in the joy of giving thanks for God's abundant provision.

Quiet Ministry in the Community:

Adhering to our solicitor's counsel to maintain a low profile in terms of major ministry work, we have continued to minister in our local community in a quiet and unobtrusive way. Our hearts remain dedicated to sharing God's love and Word with those around us.

Preaching Opportunities:

In the past few weeks, I have had the honor and privilege of preaching in several chapels. These opportunities to proclaim the Word of God and share His message have been both fulfilling and inspiring.

Dana's Writing Ministry:

Dana has been diligently working on her writing ministry during this season of waiting. We are excited to share that she is on the verge of having several new books available in the near future. Through her writing, she continues to reach hearts and minds with messages of faith, hope, and inspiration.

Health Update:

On a personal note, I recently spent a few days in the hospital due to a health concern. The doctors discovered a pinhole in my colon. After receiving rest and appropriate treatment with antibiotics, I am grateful to report that the issue appears to have resolved itself. I am now on the road to recovery and feeling stronger each day.

Gratitude for Your Prayers:

We cannot express enough how deeply we appreciate the many prayers that have been sent forth on our behalf. Your faithful intercession sustains us, uplifts our spirits, and provides us with the strength to face the challenges that come our way.

God's Faithfulness:

The past several months have not been without their difficulties, but we have experienced the unwavering faithfulness of our gracious God. By His grace, we are still here, and we trust that His plan is unfolding in His perfect timing.

As we navigate this season, we kindly request that you continue to uphold us in prayer. Also, please refrain from sharing any of our current information online, as we are doing our best to remain discreet and under the radar until our sponsorship situation is fully resolved.

We are grateful for your understanding, your unwavering support, and your faithfulness as partners in this ministry. May the Lord bless you abundantly for your love and commitment.

In Christ's Hand,
