Young Ho Lee Prayer Letter January-March 2024

Greetings from Korea

We had snow all over Korea, but the grace of God is greater than all the snow that covers the entire country. We praise God a wonderful time of fellowship we had at church and at our apartment celebrating Christmas day! We trust that you all had a wonderful time and a blessed Christmas. We do appreciate all the Christmas cards that you sent to us.

Brandon our son in law brought a powerful sermon from the Word of God, and some of them rededicated their lives to the Lord. They do need your prayers in order to grow in His Word. Faith cometh by hearing and hearing by His Word.

My nephew W Lee finally died of lung cancer, and his parents do need our prayer, for they are in deep sorrow and mourning over the loss of their only son. Please do remember their salvation before it's too late.

I am in a slow recovery from back surgery. Please do remember me in your prayer as I am planning to go to see doctor next week.

We do praise God for your faithfulness in your support and prayer for our work of missions.

Young Ho Lee
