Evangelism & Discipleship (Matthew 28:19-20)
Training Leaders (2 Timothy 2:2)
Planting Churches (Acts 16:5)

Dear Pastor & Friends,

We are very grateful for your faithful partnership in prayers and finances with our family and work here in Cordoba, Argentina! We were able to celebrate our daughters' birthdays these last months. Eloise turned 1, and Zoey turned 6 in March. Our oldest, Ingrid, turned 8 in April.

Ministry

We had a wonderful Resurrection Sunday. The church's children were able to sing, which everyone enjoyed. German, is a man who has started to come and has been very faithful. He lives downtown and takes the bus, which takes over an hour, but has rarely missed a service. He had very different views about the afterlife and believed in reincarnation. Praise the Lord he put his trust in the Lord a few weeks ago. We pray for his spiritual growth and liberation from his addictions.

Seminary

We were able to restart the Seminary in Cordoba with eighteen students. Toward the end of the year, we are planning our first graduation with four of the students graduating with their Bible Certificate.

Family Conference

We were a part of a family conference at a sister church in Cordoba. Hannah and I were both able to teach split sessions on the importance of strong families.

Crime

David had an attempted robbery downtown. As he was at a stoplight, two motorcycles came up beside the car and busted out the windows. Thankfully, he was able to drive away and was not hurt. A few weeks later, we had our car window broken while we were in church. The difficult economic situation is making some people more desperate, but we also realize it is a spiritual condition. Please pray for us and our protection as we minister here in Argentina, and we appreciate your continued prayers for the work!

In Christ,

David, Hannah, Ingrid, Zoey & Eloise Owens
