Greetings in Jesus' Name,

Once again, Barb and I have the privilege to say greetings from old Mexico. Our Lord Christ Jesus has allowed us to labor for Him here in old Mexico and He has graciously blessed us with the ability and good health to do so. He is worthy of all praise and honor!

As mentioned in our previous newsletter that all was calm, that didn't take long to change. Killings and kidnapping are have re-started again. Multiple killings are happening very close to us. Thus far, none of our folks nor us have been caught in the crossfire that takes place between drug cartels fighting over drug routes and territory and between the police and military that's happening all around us. I re-emphasize the importance of praying. Remember our folks and us when you're talking to the Lord Jesus.

Mexico has a new president and not for the better. A woman, for the first time in the history of Mexico, was sworn in as president. She is an outspoken communist terrorist sympathizer and a non believer nor a worshiper of our living Savior Jesus Christ and has no love for the United States of America and that is based on our MX news media here. Time will tell if the media is correct and what will happen under her watch and leadership. Pray that the freedom of witnessing and worship of our Lord Jesus will continue unabated.

As has been pointed out to me by some people, that by me pointing to "I John 3:17" I am begging. If begging will help our folks, I will beg and beg and beg for them again and again!! I trust that is not the case with the majority of believers in Jesus Christ. Not only the folks we labor and work among face hardships but many of our brethren in other location on this planet also struggle greatly. If we know these things and not share them with other believers, "how dwelleth the love of God in him? (them)

We've had some folks stop coming because of threats and pressure from the drug cartel/s but four others started coming because of the threats. Refusing to be intimidated! I'm still amazed how different people respond when pushed or forced to do something that they did not choose to do of their own free will. That is why the Gospel is so easy to share with people because it is an invitation from God the Father through Jesus Christ to have eternal life in Jesus. I do not present myself but Jesus and Jesus only!

Pray that our good health continues, we remain faithful and true to His calling and that we will never compromise His Word nor His Message!
