FIELD DIRECTOR FOR SPANISH-SPEAKING

PRAYER LETTER – September 2025

Dear Praying Friends,

The life of a missionary is full of transitions. When his ministry begins, he transitions from the states to the field; during furlough, he transitions from the field to the states; and when his church is ready to turn over to a national, he transitions to a new field of service, and it goes on and on. Every member of the missionary's family needs special grace to face the challenges of constantly being on the move. Next week I will be traveling to Valledupar, Colombia to visit our missionaries, Michael and Martha Hart, and they are in the process of facing two big transitions. First of all they are facing the challenge of sending their son, Timothy, off to Pensacola Christian College. Their son has been a vital part of their ministry teaching in the children's Sunday School class, and they are going to miss him. Secondly, they are in the process of making the transition from their work at the Faith Baptist Church in Valledupar to a new ministry in Bogat . There is a young man and his wife, from Mexico, who are working with Brother Michael and will be continuing the work in Valledupar, the Lord willing. Please pray for Michael and Martha as they face the challenges of making these two big transitions. Pray for the Lord's direction for their ministry in Bogat , and pray for Timothy as he makes his adjustment at Pensacola Christian College.

I just finished making a ten-minute video of our ministry entitled, "Look on the Fields." You may access it in the following ways:
