September-October 2025

Dear Supporters and Prayer Partners,

I want to begin this letter by thanking the Lord for the privilege of writing to you again and sharing how He has been at work. These past two months have been nothing short of amazing as I've witnessed the Lord faithfully answering prayer after prayer. Truly, He is worthy of all praise!

In my last update, I mentioned the need for additional support before making the move to New Hampshire. I am thrilled to report that I am now a little over 85% of my needed support! The Lord has graciously brought more churches and individuals alongside me to partner in reaching New Hampshire with the Gospel. My schedule remains full in the weeks ahead, and I would greatly appreciate your continued prayers that the Lord will supply the remaining support in His perfect timing.

Another tremendous answer to prayer is that the Lord has provided a house to live in—and not just anywhere, but in a town right beside Keene, New Hampshire! I am so thankful for how the Lord continues to make a way and confirm His calling step by step. It has been incredible to watch Him provide exactly what was needed, precisely when it was needed.

Please also pray for my departure interview, scheduled to take place around the beginning of December. This will be an important step in finalizing preparations for the move. Lord willing, by the time I write my next update, I will be able to share that I am officially living in New Hampshire and beginning this next chapter of ministry.

As we enter the holiday season, I want to express my sincere gratitude to every church and pastor who has allowed me the privilege of standing behind the pulpit and sharing about the great need for the Gospel in New Hampshire and throughout New England. Your prayers, encouragement, and support mean more than I can express.

May you and your families have a blessed Thanksgiving and a Merry Christmas, rejoicing in the goodness and faithfulness of our Lord!

Prayer request:

1. For souls to be saved in New Hampshire
2. Sam, Jones, and Waylon for salvation
3. For the remaining support to come in
4. The move up to New Hampshire

In Christ,
Noah Gudger
