

THE CAMPBELL FAMILY

MISSIONARIES IN QUEBEC

December 29, 2025

"Cast thy burden upon the Lord and he shall sustain thee: He shall never suffer the righteous to be moved." Psalm 55:22

As we come to the end of another year, we can look back and see that God's promise still holds true: "I will never leave thee nor forsake thee". It is not a trivial fact that the Great Commission given by Christ ends with this reassurance, "Lo I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world." The mission field experience will vary greatly from one missionary to another, but a common cross I think we all bear to a certain extent is loneliness, and it hits hard especially for missionary kids. This loneliness is in the sense that your life is very different from those around you and there's no-one nearby that can truly empathize with the challenges and struggles you face in this calling. The precious realization, however, is that our Master knows and feels deeply these struggles and walks with us through them with unfailing love.

The Lord has sustained us, and you all play a crucial role as you have faithfully prayed for us and supported us and the work here in Quebec. Thank you so much for encouraging us with the cards and gifts you have sent. They always come at a time when we need it.

God continues to sustain our church through His grace. We continue to have new visitors and new opportunities to sow the Gospel into hearts. We will be welcoming new members to our church family in January. We have been blessed by the believers that God has sent our way to build His church. These newcomers have come in with a humble spirit and willingness to serve.

We're thankful for Esther who has gladly taken up the ministry of cleaning the church each week. Pray for her to be able to find stable employment. Justin is a young man that grew up here in Quebec City and has a burden for reaching his province with the Gospel. He and Dakota have been working together to organize soul-winning activities and materials. Pray for him as he seeks to enroll in a Bible college program to continue his preparation for future ministry.

Evan is an English-speaking Quebecer who has been a believer for about a year and a half. Pray for his wife and children to come to Christ as well, and for his spiritual growth. We're also thankful for a family that has immigrated from the Ivory Coast. They are a sweet family that love being a part of our church family. Pray for their adjustment to life here, especially the winter!

Pray for Nicanor and Lucanor, who are both faithful preachers in our church. They are both working to establish themselves and their families here in Quebec. Pray that they will both find jobs that match their qualifications, and that they will be able to find reasonable housing closer to the church. Like in the U.S., housing cost have dramatically increased, along with groceries and other basic living costs. Making ends meet is becoming very difficult for many people. Pray that God will give us wisdom to take care of one another in the church and seek to be a help to the community.

We had good attendance for our Christmas service. This year our young men, Dakota, Mike, and William, took charge of preparing the church meal and did a great job. William's grandmother and Mike's brother both attended the service. Please pray for their salvation. Linda, who I mentioned in our last letter, also came to church for the first time. Pray that she will continue to come and understand fully what salvation through Christ truly means.

Thank you for your prayers for our family. Ashlyn did well through another semester at PCC. She is really enjoying the music classes and other opportunities she has there. We thank those that have given to help with her tuition. What a blessing to see God meet her financial needs. It has been great to have her home for a few weeks for Christmas. Sophia has also done well at her new school and has made some good friends. Continue to pray for our family's health. The last week has been difficult as we have been struggling with severe colds.

Pray also for our provincial and federal governments. Lately both governments have been introducing legislation that impact religion and churches in Canada. Churches have already been barred from renting public venues in Quebec, and the federal government is seeking to remove protections vital to religious freedom. In Quebec, legislation was introduced to ban praying in public but has not been passed. We know that God will sustain His work, and we trust Him for guidance in the new year. God bless you all!!
