Buenos días from Nuevo México! I pray this letter finds you doing well and the Lord is richly blessing all that you do for Him. It's been a busy two months. It seems like we just started 2025 and now it's almost over.

We praise the Lord for His goodness. We've been seeing some new faces in our midst over the past couple of weeks. Daniel came to us one Sunday morning during Sunday School. He had passed by the week earlier and saw the church sign. He is recently moved here from Florida. He is a Christian. He is just getting cranked up with a new job and is praying for the Lord's will in his life. The next Wednesday evening, he brought Jeff and Christine with him to prayer meeting. They are both Christians living in Albuquerque. They work with troubled folks in a rehab and mission house in the city. Please pray for all of them as they continue their walk with the Lord. Pray for our town. They desperately need to repent and believe the gospel. They are already so religious but have not met the Saviour. To talk to some of them about Jesus and explain to them their need of salvation is very difficult. As lost Catholics they know about Jesus but don't know the Jesus of the Bible. We just keep preaching the gospel and pray for the Holy Spirit to touch their hearts. If they ever get a taste of how good the Lord is, they'll never turn back. Amen!

This month we are enjoying a visit from one of our missionaries. Brother Martín and his wife Carolina are fresh in from México. We are their sending church. Their work is growing rapidly. They are seeing souls saved and disciplined each month. They will most likely be here through Christmas before returning to their home state of Durango. It is so encouraging to see what the Lord is doing. Pray for them and their work there. They face many challenges, including economic challenges. Their gasoline is twice as expensive as ours! When they visit, they always bring saludos (greetings) from our folks among the Tepehuanes. The Lord is so gracious to continue the work there among their tribe.

This next Sunday, La Iglesia Bautista Libertad (Liberty Baptist Church) will be having caroling and our Christmas Dinner. We have invited folks to come. We pray to have a great turn out. It's a time of worship, singing, preaching, eating and of course sweet fellowship! We look forward to it each year.

We want to say thank you for all that you do for us. Thank you for all your faithful prayers and support. Some of you have sent extra support for Christmas. Thank you so much for thinking of us. We pray for you and appreciate all that you do for the cause of Christ. We wish you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. Lord bless you all!
