We praise the Lord for His faithfulness and His loyalty to His children. The Christian life can be very hard at times. Trials bring discomfort. People disappoint. Plans fail. The fiery darts of Satan are enough to overwhelm us all; however, there is hope. Deuteronomy 20:1 reads, "When thou goest out to battle against thine enemies, and seest horses, and chariots, and a people more than thou, be not afraid of them: for the LORD thy God is with thee, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt." Verse 4 continues, "For the LORD your God is he that goeth with you, to fight for you against your enemies, to save you." You do not have to fight alone. The Creator of the universe walks alongside you into battle. The conflict is truly too great for us to win alone, but the Lord is greater than any opposition that comes against His children. He has already won the victory!

Tabitha and I spent the month of August in Virginia and Texas. We were blessed to be in several loving churches throughout our trips. We also got to visit with many friends whom we had not seen in a long time. The Lord has connected us with a lot of dear friends through our travels. We gained several new supporting churches, and we have now reached 95% of our total needed support. Praise the Lord!

Tabitha and the baby are still doing well. Tabitha is now 4 weeks from her due date. We are scheduled to be in several churches this month, but I will be traveling by myself so that Tabitha can rest and solely focus on preparing for the arrival of our baby girl. October 7th cannot get here fast enough.

Thank you all for the prayers and support. Please continue praying for our health and safety during the delivery of the baby. We ask that you pray for us as we are planning on shipping out a crate to Papua New Guinea in November. We are spending the month of October at home for Tabitha and the baby to rest, and so that I can prepare the crate for shipment. Please pray everything goes smoothly. We love you all, and we thank you again for your faithful prayers and support.
