February 2019

Dear Fellow Believers and Friends,

We had a very good start to 2019. Our custom for the start of each year is to schedule a few services, and then drop in at some churches that we have been to in the past or visit some new churches where we have never been. The practice has worked well over the years, and some of these “drop-ins” have turned into good friends and supporting churches.

The first Sunday of the year, we visited two former supporting churches. On Sunday morning, we went to Trinity Baptist Church in Easley, SC. Pastor Stacy Adcock had just taken the church last year when we stopped by, and it was a blessing to see what the Lord is beginning to do there again. The people remembered us and were very gracious to us. We enjoyed the singing, message, and fellowship at Trinity.

On that first Sunday night, we went to Greer, SC, to be with Pastor Paul Pendell and the people of New Life Baptist Church. Pastor Pendell greeted us by name as we walked in the door, and it was a blessing to see some familiar faces. I gave an update during the service, and we enjoyed the singing, preaching, and fellowship with the members of New Life.

The second Sunday of January, we drove down to Honea Path, SC, to be with Pastor Jim Rutland and the people of Harvest Baptist Church. Honea Path is fairly familiar to me. We went down there several times when I was growing up to see my grandfather’s brothers and sisters. They are all gone now, but I guess I have some extended family who still live there. However, we never get together with them. Anyway, Bro. Rutland and Harvest have always received us warmly and this time was no exception. I gave an update and Tamatha and the children sang. We enjoyed the service and fellowship with Bro. Rutland and the people of Harvest.

On Sunday night, we stayed in Greenville and visited with Pastor Kevin Wise and Solid Rock Baptist Church. We have been to this church several times over the years and always enjoy being with them. Since Bro. Wise has pastored the church, he has always wanted the family to sing and give an update. We did so again during this time with them. We enjoyed the fellowship and the service with Bro. Wise and Solid Rock.

On January 20, we went back to Greer, SC. This time we stopped by Good News Baptist Church. As always, Pastor Daniel Waters welcomed us to the church and had me give an update during the morning service. We enjoyed the service and fellowship with Bro. Waters and the people of New Life.

That night we drove to Gaffney, SC, to be with Victory Baptist Church and Pastor Greg Little. We have been with them the past few years while staying in Shelby, NC. We have always enjoyed being in their services and this time was no exception. We enjoyed the singing, preaching, and fellowship with the Littles and the church.

The last Sunday of January we drove down to Laurens, SC, to be with Pastor David Johnston and the members of Temple Baptist Church. I have known Bro. Johnston for many years. He was a student at Tabernacle Baptist Bible College while I was in high school back in the 1980's. We have crossed paths a few times over the years but had not seen one another for several years. We have always wanted to go there for a service, but never seemed to get over there. We finally did and had a great time with them. Bro. Johnston asked me to preach the morning service. It was a great honor to do so. We enjoyed our time with the Johnstons and Temple Baptist Church.

Our final Sunday service was with Pastor John Heffernan and Victory Baptist Church in Simpsonville, SC. John and I grew up together at Tabernacle Baptist Church in Greenville, SC. He served for several years as assistant pastor at a church in Oklahoma, and we dropped by there a couple of times over the years. He took the church in Simpsonville a little over two years ago, and the Lord is really blessing the church. We enjoyed the service and the fellowship with the Heffernans and the people of Victory.

Praises

1) The Lord's leading and the great kindness from the churches we visited in January; 2) The Lord's provision throughout the month; 3) The additions to the schedule; I am still working on our schedule and am in the process of contacting several church planters and pastors; we should be able to add some more services and meetings next month; 4) The Lord's protection as we traveled throughout the month; 5) The beginning of the settling of William and Nowelle for the next stage in their lives.

Prayer Needs

1) Power in preaching; 2) Protection in traveling; 3) Provision of daily needs; 4) Completion of schedule; 5) Continued direction and provision for William and Nowelle; by next month, we are hoping to have the old trailer parked and ready for them to move in it; they still need to buy their cars, so we will be working on that as well over the next month; 6) Direction in the purchase of trailer for us to use in the ministry.
