Dear Fellow Believers and Friends,

In April, we moved our belongings into the new trailer and also helped William and Nowelle get situated into the old trailer. We also enjoyed ministering in several churches in South Carolina, Alabama, and Georgia. We took our first trip in the trailer to Alabama. The Lord blessed with great services in each church. We also enjoyed our final trip with Nowelle and our final few services with the entire family together.

Our first service was at Glassy Mountain Baptist Church in Pickens, SC. I had preached at the church several years ago, but when we stopped by in March they were getting ready to vote on a new pastor. I had never met Bryan Cole before, but as it turns out, I had taught his wife, Alisha, in junior high at Tabernacle over 20 years ago. We enjoyed getting to meet them and seeing the church people again, but because Nowelle was sick that day, Tamatha and Nowelle could not go. I told Bro. Cole that we could come back, so he could meet the "better-looking part of the family." In between Sunday School and the morning service, Bro. Cole asked me to preach. To be honest, I was surprised and had no expectation that I would preach that morning. Bro. Cole said that the Lord had put me upon his heart on Saturday night and said that I should preach. I was honored to do so. We had a great service and enjoyed the fellowship as well. We are excited about what the Lord will do through the Cole family at Glassy Mountain in Pickens, SC.

On April 12th, 13th, and 14th, we drove over to Seneca, SC, to be a part of the Missions Conference at Old Hepsibah Baptist Church. Pastor Shawn Street and his family have become good friends of ours, and we were thrilled to be a part of their meeting. Friday night, Nowelle sang a mission song that she had written. Bro. Street liked it so much, he said that it would be the theme song for the meeting and asked her to sing again Saturday night and Sunday morning. That was a great blessing. I talked about our ministry for a little bit each service, Tamatha and the children sang, and we enjoyed hearing Bro. Fred Kindhart preach Saturday night and Sunday morning. We were thrilled as the church took us on for support. We enjoyed the services and the fellowship throughout our time with the Streets and Old Hepsibah Baptist Church.

On Sunday night, April 14th, we drove across Greenville to be at Freedom Baptist Church with Pastor Todd Page and many old friends. As we pulled in the parking lot and walked in the front door, many memories flooded my mind. This is the church where I served as youth director for two years. It is also the church that I was at when I went on a mission trip to Oshawa, Canada, and this ministry was put on my heart. We enjoyed the fellowship before and after the service with friends and with people who had served as examples to me while I was growing up. It was a great pleasure to have the family sing and to preach at Freedom

Baptist Church.

On April 20th, we took the new trailer on our first trip to Alabama. Our first stop was a revival meeting with Pastor Jim Grantham at Faith Independent Baptist Church in Smiths Station. We enjoyed great services throughout the week. The fellowship was great as well. On Tuesday evening before the service, the local pastor's fellowship met before the service for a meal. Wesley Peter gave a devotion after the meal, then we went to the auditorium for the service. We had a great week at Faith Independent Baptist Church.

We stayed through the weekend in Smiths Station and Sunday morning, we drove over to LaGrange, GA, to be with Pastor Tim Tidwell and the people of Oakside Baptist Church. We have been to the church many times over the years and they supported us in years past. It was good to see some familiar faces that we have known over the years. Tamatha and the children sang, I preached, and we enjoyed the fellowship after the service. We enjoyed being with Oakside Baptist Church once again.

The ten days that we were in Alabama were the first time that William had ever been alone. Right before we left I asked him, "You have never stayed by yourself, have you?" He said, "No." Even the few times that he stayed with grandparents or aunts and uncles, it was always with his siblings. He was lonely some during the week, but he made it to work every day, and it prepared him for what will happen when he is by himself for good.

Praises

1) New supporting churches—in addition to Old Hepsibah Baptist Church taking us on, New Freedom Baptist Church in Mobridge, SD, voted to take us on as well. Pastor David Warner called me in early April with the good news. Combined with Berean Baptist Church in Ellenwood, GA, that is three churches this year. That increases our number of supporting churches to 21 along with 4 families that support us monthly. That puts us back where we were a couple of years ago with 25 supporters. We thank the Lord for His goodness; 2) The Lord's protection to each church and to Alabama and back; 3) The Lord's provision through the monthly support and the offerings from churches and individuals; 4) The great services throughout the month; 5) Additions to our schedule.

Prayer Needs

1) Power in preaching; 2) Safety in traveling; 3) Completion of schedule; 4) Continued direction for William and Nowelle; to help them through the summer, Tamatha will stay with them in Greenville. This will allow her to help William enroll for college and prepare him to be by himself. Then she will take Nowelle up to Wisconsin in August where we will meet them and leave Nowelle for college. Wesley Peter, Silas, and I will travel during the summer together. These are big steps for us. Please pray for the Lord's hand upon each of us.

Preaching the Gospel,

Paul, Tamatha, William, Nowelle, Wesley Peter, and Silas
